LongCon III – Costume Contest Rules and Registration

Contest Entry and Photo Release Form

Contestant's Name: _____

Photo Release for Minors or Adults

I, _____, being over 18 years old or being the parent/guardian of _____, hereby consent that video recordings, photographs, and/or audio recordings of myself or minor child may be used by the Longview Public Library for advertising and marketing purposes including television, internet, and print.

Costume Contest Rules

- Put together a creative and imaginative costume in the spirit of LongCon.
- Please keep your costume "G" rated - this is a family event. No nudity. The Library staff reserves the right to decide what is appropriate for the audience.
- You cannot enter with the same costume as last year.
- You must be between 0 – 100+ years old.
- No profanity, political or religious statements are allowed on/in costumes.
- Costumes cannot promote any particular political agenda or message.
- Costumes cannot endorse hate groups.
- Participants are responsible for their own belongings. The Library is unable to provide a secure area for personal items.
- You cannot have any real weapons including metal weapons of any kind, including swords, shuriken, aluminum bats, etc., and of course real guns. Foam weapons, plastic weapons, and the like are encouraged, but any realistic-looking gun props MUST have orange tips. If your weapon violates our rules, or if it doesn't yet still looks like it could hurt people, we will ask you to remove it from the library.
- Your costume must allow movement with limited assistance.
- You understand your/ or your minor child's photo will be taken and potentially appear in Library posts on the web page, newsletter, or in social media.

I understand and will abide by the costume contest rules:
